

Writing

Mark's book: Igniting Children's Writing, is being published by Bloomsbury in April 2018 see pre-order details here

In the most dynamic classrooms, there is joined-up thinking, and the skills of writing, reading, spelling, talking and listening are embedded into wonderful teaching sequences. These are inspired by brilliant texts, which make links between subjects, skills, experiences and the real world.

This workshop will model Mark's W.R.I.T.E.R. sequence, and teachers will consider how this can be applied to their planning, from a one-off guided writing session to an extended sequence over a number of lessons.
