

Collaborative Learning in Action

Participants will be exploring the following questions:

- 1) What does collaborative learning look like?
- 2) What are the benefits of collaborative learning?
- 3) How can I balance collaborative learning with other requirements?
- 4) How can we assess collaborative learning?
- 5) What does meaningful action look like?

Learning Aims

- 1) Explore how communication and collaboration can be taught and assessed
- 2) Identify opportunities within your school or college to develop communication and collaboration skills
- 3) Receive a referenced theoretical understanding of collaboration and social skills
- 4) Learn how to embed collaboration skills in the curriculum and in classroom practice.
- 5) To identify and understand the importance of action as evidence of learning.

This course is suited for both Primary and Secondary Schools

Consultant: Paul Tyack

To book or find out more – Contact Us

Click here for more consultancy and training

“A thought-provoking day with a lot of time spent clarifying our current situation and how to see a clear way forward”.

Plymouth Secondary School

